Volunteering in a Lab

Opportunities available depend on the Professor

Check with each professor individually (via email or in-person)

Be persistent

Don't give up easily (you will likely get many "no"s before you finally get a "yes")

Be professional and courteous when you email them Note: Ecology-based labs usually advertise for volunteers in class

APPROACHING/EMAILING PROFS

See Faculty profiles for a description of their research and their contact information

Familiarize yourself with their research and choose a prof whose line of research/techniques genuinely interests YOU!

Approach professors through email, class, or office hours

Be courteous and prepare to market yourself

Show the professor that you really have an interest in their research (read a few of their most

HOW DID YOU DO?

Dear [REDACTED]

I am an undergraduate student at York University completing a double major in psychology and biology. I will be starting my fourth year in September 2015 and would like to do my honours thesis. After volunteering in a Biology research lab for the past year and [REDACTED] realized that my research interests lie in the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I found that your research on [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was particularly interesting. Furthermore, I find it appealing that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. On that note, I would like to inquire whether you are currently accepting honours thesis students for the 2015/2016 year. If so, I was wondering if you would be available anytime next week to discuss this possibility?

I would like to mention that I have previous research experience [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] My psychology GPA is [REDACTED]. I have attached my unofficial transcript and resume for your consideration. I have also attached a writing sample I submitted as an assignment for the course PSYC 3260 Cognition. Thank you in advance for your consideration and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
